

I am completely satisfied with my satellite radio and would welcome any additional programming, both local and national. Competition in the marketplace must not be governed in our society.